

NURSES TO RAISE ENDOWMENT FUND

State Association Decides to Lend Aid to Members in Misfortune.

At the annual convention of the Graduate Nurses' Association of Virginia, which closed yesterday, plans were made for the establishment of an endowment fund for the purpose of contributing to the aid of nurses in ill health and lending material assistance to others in time of necessity. The most important business accomplished was the raising of the endowment fund. By converting the sick benefit fund, this money can be used for the broader purpose of ministering to the comfort of members of the association who are in need.

It was pointed out by the speakers at the convention that seven years of work at nursing is generally sufficient to impair the health and strength of the most robust woman. With few exceptions nurses find it necessary to take a long rest after seven years of constant application to the hard duties of their calling. Rarely are they able to lay by a reserve fund to support them during this enforced period of idleness. It is the intention of the association, in establishing the endowment fund, to help the nurses in such emergencies.

Report by Mrs. E. C. Levy.

One of the features of the convention was the report of the standardizing of nurses training schools read by Mrs. E. C. Levy, of Richmond, secretary of the State Board of Examiners of Graduate Nurses. The suggestions offered by Mrs. Levy, who is the wife of the Chief Health Officer of Richmond, were received with approval. Mrs. Levy has been requested to read the same report before the convention of the American Nurses' Association, to be held in St. Louis in April.

Addresses on the work of the American Red Cross Society were delivered by Director Jenkinson, of the Atlantic division of the society, and Miss Ella Crandall, secretary of the National Public Health Association.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were: Miss Celia Bran, of Danville, president; Miss Wells, of Lynchburg, vice-president; Miss Agnes D. Randolph, Richmond, secretary, and

The Distinctive Store

This beautiful and wonderful store was built to meet a demand in this community for a comprehensive and representative jewelry establishment—such as one finds in the largest metropolitan centers.

Each day brings new patrons, who, like all others when they purchase here, are enthusiastic about it.

Moderate prices are a distinguishing feature of the Schwarzschild store, and personal attention to the wants of each patron is an appreciated service second only in importance to the quality and excellence of our stocks.

Another False Alarm.

Despite the offer of a reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons or person who turned a false alarm of fire from Box 55, St. John and Court Streets, on the night of February 1, another false alarm was sounded last night at 11:30 o'clock from Box 564, Seventeenth and Hospital Streets. There was no one on the scene when the apparatus arrived, and it was evident that the alarm had been sent in by some malicious person. The reward was offered several days ago by Mayor Ainslie.

COMMITTEE HEARS CLAIMS OF V. M. I.

Reimbursement Sought for Destruction by Union Soldiers in Civil War.

AMOUNT SOUGHT $137,000

Major-General Wood Declares Act Was Contrary to Civilized Warfare.

Washington, February 7.—The Senate Committee on Claims held a hearing to-day on the claim of the Virginia Military Institute for reimbursement by the Federal government in the sum of $137,000 for the destruction of the institute by Federal artillery during the Civil War.

Senator Du Pont, of Delaware, patron of the bill in the Senate, made a strong plea in behalf of the bill, in which he stated he was in command of artillery which destroyed the institute by orders of General Hunter. He stated there was no occasion to burn the school, and that its destruction was contrary to civilized warfare. He said that Major William McKinley, later President, also in the Union army around Lexington, agreed with him.

Major-General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, appeared and made a statement in behalf of the school, in which he said that V. M. I. was the best military school in the country, with the exception of West Point. He agreed that its destruction was contrary to civilized warfare.

Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, who was a student at V. M. I. at the time of its destruction, also made a statement favorable to the claim.

Others appearing before the committee in behalf of V. M. I. were General E. W. Nichols, superintendent of V. M. I., Congressman Hal Flood, patron of the bill in the House, Senator Swanson and Colonel Joseph Button, a member of the board of visitors of the institute.

Judging from the tone of the questions and comment by the members of the Senate committee, the bill will be reported favorably to the Senate for $137,000. It is extremely doubtful that the committee will favor the payment of accrued interest, which would bring the claim up to $214,000. G. H. M.

Favorable Report Expected.

Colonel Joseph Button, who returned to the city last night from Washington, said that the opinion was general that the Du Pont bill would be reported favorably by the committee.

"Senator Du Pont's description of the burning of the institute property was dramatic in the extreme," he said. "As General Hunter's chief of artillery, he was prepared to give an accurate account of the affair, and members of the committee sat there and listened for an hour and fifty minutes. He brought out the fact that the subordinate officers were violently opposed to the destruction of the institute property. Senator Du Pont stated that his father was a classmate at West Point with General Francis H. Smith, the first superintendent of the institute, and naturally, he felt a sort of personal interest in the institute, even at a time when orders were issued by his superior officers for its destruction. It was also a matter of comment in the committee that fifty years after the attack the man who was ordered to carry it out and a young cadet who remembered it so distinctly were now members of the United States Senate, and that both of them were urging the government to make amends and proper restitution. Senator Martin has worked indefatigably for the Du Pont bill, and we are firmly convinced that it will be passed when it comes from the Committee on Claims with a favorable report."

NEGRO CAPTURED AFTER TWO YEARS

Jumped Bail Bond While Facing Charge of Robbing The Cohen Company, Inc.

Charles Ellis, colored, who had been the object of a police search for two years, having jumped a bail bond of $300 when he was facing trial for grand larceny, was arrested yesterday at Twenty-fifth and Venable streets, where he was employed in a drug store, by Detective Sergeants Krongel and Atkinson.

Ellis, who said that he had not been out of the city for very great length of time, is wanted on the charge of stealing $80 from the Cohen Company, Inc., by which he was employed as a driver for more than thirteen years. He is alleged to have made cash sales for goods delivered and failed to turn in the money. Other warrants, it is understood, have been sworn out against him and will be detected when the case is brought to trial in Police Court.

The bond, under which Ellis was released pending his hearing, was furnished by Dr. G. C. Woodson, of 424 North Twenty-fifth Street. So far as the record show, it was never forfeited, and now that the negro is again in custody Dr. Woodson will lose nothing.

Krongel and Atkinson on Friday night learned that Ellis was in the city, and had little difficulty in locating him. Until his first arrest Ellis bore a good reputation and was well-regarded by his employers.

CUT ILLITERACY IN UNITED STATES

House Committee Unanimous for Movement to Obliterate Stain and Reproach.

Washington, February 7.—"The proportion of the wholly illiterate adults among the population of the United States is a national disgrace which can be very quickly eliminated," declared a unanimous report to-day from the House Education Committee on the Lever bill to investigate illiteracy. The bill, which carries no appropriation, authorizes the Commissioner of Education to co-operate with a concerted movement involving field and clerical service, with the States, individuals and associations, to "obliterate the stain and reproach of illiteracy."

P. P. Claxton, commissioner of the Federal Bureau of Education, has expressed the belief that illiteracy could be cut to a fraction of 1 per cent, and Representative Tower, of Iowa, in submitting the committee report, predicted it would be accomplished with little delay.

The report of the commissioner shows the number of illiterates in the United States to be 2,184,954 whites, ten years old or more, at the census of 1910, excluding the population of the country in 1900.

The distribution ranges from 17 per 1,000 people in Iowa to 259 per 1,000 in Louisiana. In the South, the report adds, the percentage is highest in the rural districts, and in the North it is highest in the cities. Boston has 24-48 illiterates over ten years old.

"There are 2,272,603 illiterate males of twenty-one years and over in the United States," it pointed out, "or enough to determine any national election at any period of United States history."

France, by quick concerted action, reduced its number of adult illiterates from 45 in 100 to 5 in 100, the report adds.

Stopped Night Sweats and Banished Cough

If you are suffering with a continued cough, cold or Lung Trouble which does not yield to any treatment, it might be the greatest value to you to investigate what Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for the Throat and Lungs, has accomplished for many similar sufferers. Many who have investigated and used it have voluntarily declared that it was the means of saving their lives. Read this case:

"Gentlemen:—For four years I was troubled with a cough, which gradually became worse. I had night sweats and pains in my chest. I was losing my appetite and had become so thin and weak I could not attend to my household duties. A physician pronounced my disease Lung Trouble. Not being satisfied I was examined by the physicians of the Polyclinic Hospital. They also confirmed my trouble, and I was ordered away for treatment. My nephew would not allow me to go until I had tried Eckman's Alternative. Before I had taken the medicine three weeks I had marked relief, night sweats ceased, pain in the breast relieved, cough became loose and easy, fever left me, and I commenced getting well. My health became normal. I am in excellent health now and have been for twelve years."

FOR AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION WORK

Washington, February 7.—The House agricultural extension bill was passed by amendments by the Senate to-day without a dissenting vote.

The bill provides for demonstrations on farms of approved methods, and scientific discoveries as to farming and home economics, made in State agricultural colleges, experimental stations and in the Federal Department of Agriculture. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to outline plans for carrying out demonstrations.

As agreed to in the Senate, the bill would appropriate unconditionally $10,000 annually to each State. In addition a sum of $600,000 for the coming year, with a yearly increase of $600,000 for the next seven years, would be provided for distribution among the States on a basis of rural population, conditioned on each State appropriating a sum equal to its portion of the Federal funds.

After seven years, the bill would provide a permanent annual appropriation of $4,800,000.

An amendment requiring that negro colleges be permitted to share in the funds was defeated by a vote of 32 to 23. The bill was amended, however, as a result of a fight on the race question, by placing the distribution of the fund in the hands of the Secretary of Agriculture and respective State Governors in States having more than one agricultural college, and also specifying against race discrimination in the demonstration work.

The bill probably will be considered soon in conference between the two houses.

U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Having been set aside as conference day, no cases were argued yesterday in the United States Court of Appeals. Two opinions were handed down, as follows:

No. 1209.—W. H. Townsend, C. E. Leaphart and T. P. Meetez, trustees of the estate of W. P. Root, bankrupt, defendants, vs. Root, bankrupt, petitioner and cross-petitioner, vs. Ashepoan Fertilizer Company, respondent and cross-petitioner. On cross-petitions to superintendent and revise, in matter of law, proceedings of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of South Carolina, at Charleston. Opinion by Judge Woods. Affirmed and modified.

No. 1176.—M. Snider, appellant, vs. Steamship Iowa, S. E. Adams, master and claimant, appellee. Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, for Norfolk. Opinion by Judge Fritchard. Affirmed.

Case in call to-morrow: No. 1217.—Ollie H. Browning and James S. Browning, Jr., an infant, suing by his next friend, James S. Browning, appellants, vs. Thomas T. Boswell, Merville H. Carter, Andrew C. Snyder, the Big Vein Pochahontas Coal Company, and the Colonial Trust Company et al., appellees. Appeal from the District Court at Lynchburg, Va. To be argued by W. J. Henson, of Roanoke, Va., and Richard H. Tippet, of Baltimore, Md., for the appellants, and by Keoch Wright & Lord, of Baltimore, Md., and George W. St. Clair, of Tazewell, Va., for the appellees.

ELY'S CREAM BALM OPENS CLOGGED
NOSTRILS AND HEAD—CATARRH GOES

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely, Nasty Discharge Stops, Head Colds and Dull Headache Vanish.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dripping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.
